

The funeral repast is a time for family and friends to come together to share memories and a meal. For many, it is an essential part of the grieving process.

At Smith's, we realize that the loss of your loved one creates a flood of emotions. And a long list of decisions to be made and tasks to be completed. None of which you have the energy for.

We would like to help by providing a peaceful, inviting space for you and your family to take refuge in, even if it's just for a little while. And maybe more importantly, a meal for you to share with them.

This pamphlet will provide you with information about the facility, the meal options and pricing, and our contact information. We would be happy to finalize the details by phone or in person, whichever you'd prefer.
